Fairbanks - 2 Nights

Fairbanks

The City of Fairbanks is known as the “Golden Heart City”. The people of Fairbanks are known for their generosity of spirit, hospitality, and friendliness. The city is vibrant with business and trade, outdoor and sports activities, and a dynamic arts community.

Join the Binkley family for a trip through Alaska’s gold mining history at the El Dorado Gold Mine. Ride the Tanana Valley Railroad for an adventure into the gold fields of the Interior. A two-hour guided tour takes you through a permafrost tunnel where Alaska’s mining history comes alive. Enjoy a walking tour of our mining camp, then meet and talk with Alaska miners as you learn about present-day prospecting methods. After a short course in gold mining, grab your own ‘poke’ filled with pay dirt right out of the sluice box and try your hand at panning for gold!

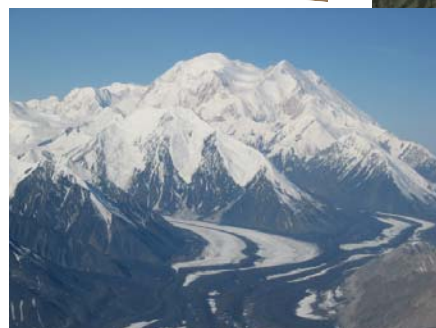

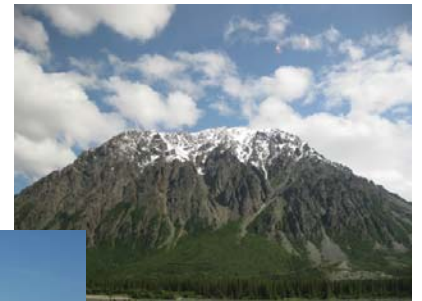

Sternwheeler Riverboat Cruise - Welcome aboard! Float down the Chena and Tanana Rivers and take a three-and-a-half hour cruise into the heart of Alaska and the heart of a family who has made the rivers of Alaska a way of life for four generations. You will see a bush plane taking off from a “bush” style runway, witness the “wedding of the rivers,” and gain insight into the ancient Athabascan Indian culture. Alaskan Native guides who have worked and lived in Alaska will take you on a personalized tour of the Chena Indian Village and see a dog sled demonstration! The evening is free to spend as you choose in Fairbanks. Your adventure has just begun!

Denali - 2 Nights

Explore Denali National Park on the Natural History Tour. Travel within Denali National Park and Preserve. With a focus on the rich, cultural history of the park, this tour makes several stops with programs that depict the diverse native and early pioneer influences that make Denali special. Hear about the history and culture that surrounds you. The scenery alone is worth the trip, and you may also be lucky enough to see some wildlife.

Aboard luxury rail cars, you will travel to beautiful Denali National Park and Preserve. Denali has over six million acres of extremely diverse terrain including the highest mountain in North America, Mount McKinley, which rises 20,320 feet and overshadows the surrounding mountain peaks of the magnificent Alaskan Range. Despite harsh winters of eight to nine months, Denali is considered a sub-arctic desert. Rare plant life, taiga and tundra, and flowering plants are abundant here. Moose, caribou, Dall sheep, grizzly bears and wolves freely roam in Denali. You will be staying in style at the Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge for a 2-night retreat.

Mt. McKinley - 2 Nights

A scenic rail journey to the Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge awaits you this morning. The Lodge is located on the south side of Denali Park. You can choose from a variety of optional excursions or just relax at the lodge.

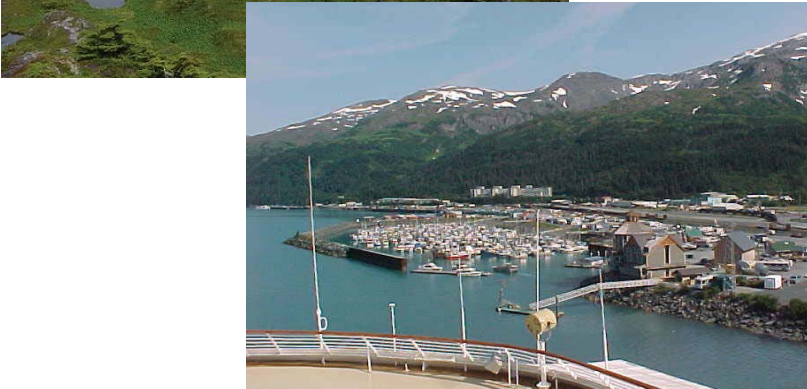

From the moment you arrive at Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge you know you are somewhere special. Bordering the south side of Denali National Park on the banks of the Chulitna River, this Lodge is a true wilderness retreat. In the main lodge, there is a room so spectacular it has been named, "The Great Room." An irresistible haven with an impressive stone fireplace, "The Great Room" features cozy sitting areas, tables for card and board games, and enormous floor-to-ceiling windows that look out upon majestic Mt. McKinley and the Alaska Range. It has one of the most inspirational views of The Mountain found anywhere. We will spend two nights in this beautiful area.

Whittier - Embarkation

Whittier lies 75 miles southeast of Anchorage. Nestled at the base of the Chugach Mountains, Whittier is the gateway to spectacular Prince William Sound. Surrounded by snow capped peaks, Whittier sits near an impressive glacier and is one of Princess' newest ports of call. The town was once accessible only by boat or via a war-era railway tunnel. Recently, the Anton Anderson Memorial Tunnel was enhanced to accommodate highway traffic as well as rail. This tunnel is now the longest highway tunnel in North America at a staggering two and a half miles. We enjoy both motorcoach and rail as we journey to our ship.

Settle into your cabin and get ready for an amazing cruise aboard the exquisite Diamond Princess. The Diamond Princess is a luxury destination in itself. Wake each morning in anticipation of a new horizon. Indulge in a hot stone massage at the renowned Lotus Spa, enjoy fine dining in a formal or relaxed atmosphere and make it a cruise to remember.

Relax and enjoy 7 unforgettable days cruising the fabled Inside Passage and Alaska's dramatic coast. Enhance your experience with a variety of optional shore excursions in every port such as unforgettable helicopter tours where you can actually stand right on a glacier!

HUBBARD GLACIER (Scenic Cruising)

Hubbard Glacier is the longest tidewater glacier in Alaska extending 76 miles from its source on Mt. Logan in the Yukon. The cliff face you sail along is over six miles wide, 300 to 400 feet from the top to sea level and 300 feet from sea level to the bottom. As Hubbard is advancing, it creaks and groans as it moves and is a very actively calving glacier. This makes for some exciting moments when the huge chunks of ice crash into the Bay creating a wonderful sound called 'white thunder.'

GLACIER BAY (Scenic Cruising)

This treasure trove of tidewater glaciers and scenic coastal islands is Alaska at its best. Glacier Bay's wildlife spectacles are as glorious as the scenery, with Steller sea lions congregated on rocky islands, Dall's porpoises feeding along the shores, bald eagles peering down from giant cedar snags at water's edge, and humpback whales and orcas gliding in the turquoise waters.

Skagway

Boasting one of the oldest narrow-gauge railroads in existence, Skagway lies at the head of Lynn Canal. This "Gateway to the Klondike" watched as countless fortune-seekers passed on its streets as they headed to the Chilkoot and White Pass Trails during the days of Alaska's Gold Rush. Today, you can still feel like a prospector in Skagway, as you walk along its rustic boardwalks and frontier-style storefronts.

With only 750 residents, Skagway offers a pleasant respite from the hustle and bustle of most cities. The weather is much different, and drier, here compared to the rest of southeastern Alaska, as it gets an average of just 22 inches of precipitation each year.

Juneau

Perched on a thin strip of land at the mouth of Gold Creek, Juneau is arguably one of America's most beautiful state capitals, with the looming summits of Mt. Juneau and Mt. Roberts providing a gorgeous backdrop. Once an integral part of Alaska's Gold Rush, the city now boasts a mixture of natural and man-made attractions. Often hailed as Juneau's most impressive sight, nearby Mendenhall Glacier is approximately 12 miles long and 1.5 miles wide. You can see the glacier on a float trip or a "flight seeing" adventure, or hike up one of its trails for a closer inspection.

Ketchikan

This southern-most Alaskan port of call is known as "Alaska's First City" because it is the first major community travelers come to as they travel north. Founded as a fishing camp, Ketchikan is built on steep hillsides and is billed as the salmon capital of the world. A quaint village, the town is just three miles long and three blocks wide.

With the world's largest collection of totem poles, Totem Bight State Historical Park offers insight into various native cultures of the Pacific Northwest. Much of the history of people like the Tlingit, Haida and Tsimshian is not entirely known, but some of the elaborate poles help convey their stories. In the absence of written language, these wood-carved creations tell colorful, intricate tales, often showing a family's history or depicting a local legend.

Many shore excursion are available to you at the different port stops (not included in the tour price)

Vancouver

Surrounded by ocean, with impressive mountains immediately to the north, Vancouver is a shiny, modern North American metropolis infused with a Pacific flavor. It's also the perfect jumping-off point for exploring British Columbia's beautiful wilderness. Our ship will be docking right next to the famous Canada Place, and then we usually enjoy a bus ride through the city on the way to the airport.
