CEDAR CREST in Topeka
Kansas Governor's Mansion and
Brookville Hotel Dinner
Plus Mystery Stop

See the Mansion all "decked out" for Christmas!

Cedar Crest is the residence of the Kansas governor. Overlooking the Kansas River, this 12 room French-Norman style house was built in 1928. The foyer displays pictures of the First Ladies and First Men of Kansas. The mansion is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Cedar Crest recently went through a $4 million renovation and you must see the "new" look.

Once you travel with Jim and Cindy, you most likely will do all your traveling with the dynamic duo!

- Marcy Allenbaugh

"Never had so much fun! We expected no less with Jim and Cindy in charge. It's always the best!"

- Corrine Zimmerman

Enjoyed the trip! It was my first time to the Northwest and I saw a lot interesting places that I had read about.
